

Abstract

The subject of the presented bachelor thesis is the theme of power. The aim of this work is to identify the hidden aspects of power in contemporary organizations, to analyze their causes, nature and consequences and to introduce topics associated with them which could be developed or characterized more and better in the social sciences. Based on the research of the socio-psychological dimension of power and the analysis of the concept of power in specific organizations, I try to reveal their hidden negative aspects leading to abuse of power and I propose the control mechanisms which could be done to prevent or at least limit them.
